Administrative Unit Victim Advocate (AUVA) Training: a specialized short training that guides military command-level designees on overseeing compliance with Sexual Assault Prevention and Response (SAPR) program policies.

Sailor Assistance and Intercept for Life (SAIL): a program available to active-duty Sailors who have experienced suicide ideation or a suicide attempt (referred to as Suicide-Related Behavior or SRB).

Commanding Officer's Toolkit (CO Toolkit): an official resource package designed for military commanders to help them manage, prevent, and respond to sexual assault incidents within their units.

Military Rule of Evidence (MRE 514): establishes the Victim Advocate-Victim Privilege, which protects confidential communications between a victim of a sexual or violent offense and a victim advocate.
